

Reverend Offers Sermon on Living

"Living According to the Facts" is the topic of the sermon the Rev. Dr. Murray Jones will give Sunday during the worship service at 11 a.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd.

Nursery care is provided by the Mariners, a married couple group of the church, during the service. Church school is held in the new buildings at 9:30 a.m. each Sunday.

Work continues towards completion of the buildings as men of the congregation build the Sunday School rooms. Volunteers work Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Saturday. They are served meals by women of the church.

The Mariners will meet Saturdays for a Valentine Box Social in the Fireside Room at 7 p.m.

New Study Section Offered by AAUW

Two new study sections have been approved by the executive board of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills branch of the American Association of University Women and are now being organized. Mrs. Frances Scott, status of women chairman, will head a study of investments and the stock market, and invites any AAUW member who realizes the importance of such a study to join her discussion group. She has had special training in this field.

Anyone who feels the urge to do any type of creative writing is invited to join the creative arts study group. Mrs. Harry G. Petterson is chairman. Mrs. Petterson has obtained a competent teacher who lives in the South Bay area to instruct the sessions and she wishes to stress the fact that this class is open to others besides AAUW members. The class will meet on Thursday mornings from 10 until noon. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Peterson at FR 5-2895.

Mrs. Scott's first meeting will be in her home, 1909 Santa Rina, in Rolling Hills Riviera, February 14, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Scott may be contacted at TE 1-3659.

El Camino Slates Mrs. Cornelison

Mrs. Mildred Cornelison, actress and lecturer, brings her talents to El Camino College Campus Center with the presentation, "Hats Can Be Fun" on Thursday, Feb. 16, at 7:30 p.m.

From a collection of more than forty hat styles, Mrs. Cornelison tells how and why certain hats were created and "What Hats Tell About Ourselves."

Her story gives helpful hints on "individualizing you" on basic color, eye, and on establishing your figure and personality type.

Typical audience comments from previous lectures have described Mrs. Cornelison as "... charming, poised and gracious person who holds her audience completely...".

A graduate of UCLA, Mrs. Cornelison has appeared before the Los Angeles Ebell, Claremont College Mothers, Verdugo Hills Art Association and the Los Angeles Medical Association Wives.

Sponsored by the Faculty Wives of El Camino College, the program is a benefit for that group's student scholarship fund and a ticket price of $1.25 is asked. The public is welcomed.

Fashion Sewing Contest Entrants Planned by Club

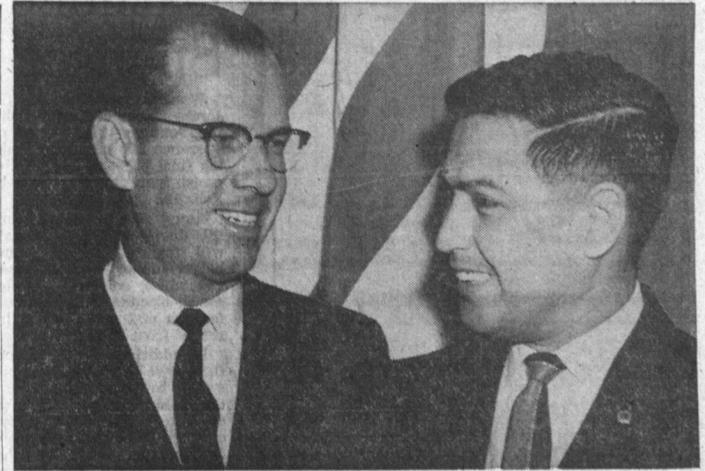

Sewing a smart, fashion may win a trip to Paris for a local clubwoman this year. Mrs. R. L. Snodgrass, home-crafts chairman of the Torrance Womens Club, CPWC Dist. 18, has just announced the club's plan to enter the 5th Annual Fashion-Sewing Contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Vogue Pattern Service.

First prize in this national contest is a trip to Europe, with other awards including trips to the Federation's annual convention in Miami Beach, Florida, next spring, and important cash awards to the clubs represented by the three national winners.

All contestants are required to make and model an outfit which they consider the "Ideal Costume for the Clubwoman's Wardrobe." The winning entry will be selected on the basis of adaptability for various club occasions, over-all fashion effect, becomingness to wearer, and workmanship. Judging of entries from the local club is scheduled for Feb. 15 at the Clubhouse.

The winner of this judging will be eligible to compete in the Marina District judging to be held March 3rd also at the Torrance Women's Club Clubhouse. The district winner is eligible to compete in the State judging, and prizes at this level consist of cash awards of $100 and $25 to the first and second place winners.

In the final round of the Fashion-Sewing Contest, the top winner from each state will go on to the national judging to be held in New York City in mid-May. The grand prize will be a 3-week fashion tour of Europe for two people. Second and third place winners will receive $500 and $250 respectively. The 2 top winners will also attend the 1961 CFWC Convention.

FOR APPRECIATION—County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn (left) presents certificate of appreciation from the Board of Supervisors to Luis Fairhurst, commander, 91st Division Association, for leading the pledge of allegiance opening this week's meeting of the County's governing body. A well-known Lawdale businessman, Fairhurst is a member of Inglewood Post 188, the American Legion and of the Gardena post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He served in Europe in World War II as a paratrooper. Fairhurst resides at 1103 W. 228th street, Torrance, and his real estate office at 4437 W. 147th street, Lawdale. He appeared before the Supervisors as the guest of Supervisor Hahn, the Board's only veteran, who initiated the custom of opening the meetings with the pledge of allegiance.

Menorah Sponsors Interfaith Meeting

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will hold a combined interfaith meeting with the Men's Club Feb. 14 at 8 p.m. at 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach.

Three Rabbis will discuss Judaism: Rabbi Alfred Wolf, Wilshire Blvd. Temple, will view the reformed; Rabbi Matthew Simon, Temple Ramah in Northridge, will speak for the conservative; and Rabbi Yitzchak Abramson, director of activities, Beth Congregation of Beverly Hills, will speak for the orthodox. Rabbi Henri Front of Temple Menorah will moderate.

Rabbi Wolf is lecturer in religion at USC. With Joseph Gaer he wrote the book "Our Jewish Heritage." In 1941 he was awarded Master of Hebrew Letters by Hebrew Union College.

Rabbi Simon was ordained by the Jewish Theological Seminary in June, 1958, after which he entered the U.S. Navy as a chaplain and served on the staff of Commander Naval Forces, Japan, for two years. He completed his graduate work in political science at the University of Chicago.

Rabbi Abramson was ordained in 1956. He continued doing post-graduate work in theology until September, 1958, at the Gur Aryeh Institute for Advanced Jewish Studies under Rabbi Isaac Hutner. He attended Washington University and Brooklyn College, majoring in psychology.

The program for this year is as follows:

March 13, Luncheon meeting, speaker Rabbi Wolli Kalter; April 10, Gale Sondergard, dramatic reading on Life of Emma Lazarus; May 8, Play by Sylvia Siegel; June, Installation.

Persons desiring information or in need of transportation call Mmes. Harvey Abramson, FR 7-1208; Albert Carmona, FR 1-4045; or Paul Glassman, FR 5-0616. Mrs. Arthur Jurmain, publicity, said.

AVERAGE TAXPAYER

The average taxpayer may feel no surprise at all when informed that, as a news service put it so neatly, "a record number of taxpayers paid record federal income taxes this year on record 1959 earnings." The individual taxpayer, recalling his own painful disbursements to Uncle Sam, may be inclined to say, "It figures."
